

Changes to the Supervisory Board

Younger generation represents the shareholder family of the Endress+Hauser Group

The Supervisory Board of the Endress+Hauser Group has been realigned. Matthias Altendorf took up his position as the new president of the Supervisory Board on 1 January 2024. As announced, his predecessor Dr Klaus Endress withdrew from active involvement in the company at the end of 2023. He remains chairman of the Endress Family Council.

Sandra Genge and Steven Endress uphold the interests of the family

The shareholder family will continue to be represented by two members on the Supervisory Board. In addition to Sandra Genge, who joined the board in 2022, Steven Endress has represented the family's interests since 1 January 2024. Both are grandchildren of company founder Dr Georg H Endress and his wife Alice Endress-Vogt. The new vice president of the Supervisory Board since the beginning of the year is Mathis Büttiker, who has been a board member since 2017.

Thomas Bachmann succeeds Dr Hans Jakob Roth

With effect from 15 April 2024, there has been another change to the Supervisory Board. Dr Hans Jakob Roth has left the board at his own request. The Asia expert will support Endress+Hauser in an advisory capacity in future. Newly appointed to the Supervisory Board is Thomas Bachmann (born 1959). The mechanical engineer is a Swiss citizen. He has many years of experience as a CEO in international family-owned businesses and publicly listed industrial groups.

The Endress+Hauser Group

Endress+Hauser is a global leader in measurement and automation technology for process and laboratory applications. The family company, headquartered in Reinach, Switzerland, achieved net sales of more than 3.7 billion euros in 2023 with a total workforce of almost 17,000.

Endress+Hauser devices, solutions and services are at home in many industries. Customers thus use them to gain valuable knowledge from their applications. This enables them to improve their products, work economically and at the same time protect people and the environment.

Endress+Hauser is a reliable partner worldwide. Its own sales companies in more than 50 countries as well as representatives in another 70 countries ensure competent support. Production facilities on four continents manufacture quickly and flexibly to the highest quality standards.

Endress+Hauser was founded in 1953 by Georg H Endress and Ludwig Hauser. Ever since, the company has been pushing ahead with the development and use of innovative technologies, now helping to shape the industry's digital transformation. 8,900 patents and applications protect the Group's intellectual property.
